MANCHESTER AND VICINITY.

Church Notes-New Year Texts .- Notwithstanding the cold weather of Sunday all the churches were well attended both at the morning and night services.

At the Baptist church in the morning Rev. Dr. D. B. Winfree preached a sermon appropriate to the first Sabbath of the new year, on "The Recognition of Religious Yows," from Psalms exvil., 18: "I will pay my vows unto the Lord in the presence of all His people."

The reverend gentleman announced himself as the Lord's collector, and demanded the payment of all bills due. The sermon was an excellent one, and commanded the closest attention from a large congregation.
At night Rev. Dr. Winfree preached on
"The Uncertainty of Life," from Jeremish axviii.. 16: "This year thou shalt

At the Presbyterian church Rev. William A. Campbell officiated at 11 o'clock A. M. and at 71 o'clock P. M. The text on the first occasion was from I. Corinthians viii., 81: "And they that use world as not abusing it." At night the text was from Luke iv., 18: "To set at liberty them that are bruised." This last was the continuation of a series of interesting sermons on a similar subject. The Meade Memorial church was handsomely decorated for the New-Year, and a large congregation greeted the rector, Rev. J. Julius Sams, on his return from a holiday trip. Mr. Sams preached in the morning and afternoon from subjects appropriate to Sabbath-School Election.—Last Sunday the Baptist Sunday school elected the fol-lowing officers for the ensuing twelve months : Dr. Thomas P. Matthews, superintendent; Harvey J. Nunnally, assistant superintendent; T. E. Owens, secretary; A. C. Harding, treasurer; Miss Lelia Bailou, organist; and H. J. Nunnaly and A. C. Harding, choristers.

Personal.—The Danville News contains a highly complimentary notice of Captain

John A. Gee, of this city, conductor on the Richmond and Danville railroad. It was written by Dr. Hardy, of Columbus, Miss., in return for kindness to himself and invalid daughter a few weeks since while en route for home. The young lady, who was a pupil at one of the Staunton institutes, has since died.

A Pleasant Surprise .- Rev. Mr. Sams, on his return home from a visit to Norfolk was visited by many members of his con-advantage to them. Please insert for A FARMER.

RICHMOND, January 7, 1878. Editors Dispatch: Please inform me through your paper whether the High-Constable has lawful authority to pay a lawyer's fees out of money collected on a judgment rendered in one's favor without his authority or a due process of law.

[For the Dispatch.]

Mr. "Petersburg Appeal":
Dear Sir,—Your similes hang fire badly. "Dante's spirits in hell are able to foretell the future." The Dispatch tells of the past. The spirits "do not know what is going on at the present time"-the Dispatch does. You say: "Like the spirits, the Dispatch of the 1st instant knew everything that had happened in the year before." But then the spirits are able to foretell the future, and "do not know what is going on at the present time." The Dispatch knows of the present and past. "Try again," Mr. Appeal. Your similes don't run-even hob-ble. Yours, "Qui Vive."
